The patrons of our Directory are frequently inconvenienced by

BORROWERS;

PHONE the stranger or private citizen, who steps
E in, looks at the Directory, gets his information, and goes out; but by business men, who continually need it for reference, yet are TOO MEAN to buy one. These are the men who carry off your Directory "just for a few minutes," which generally means a few days or weeks unless you send for it before.

These same borrowers tell our Canvassers that they have no use for a Directory.

OTTAWA CENSUS.

Population of the Capital According to Religious Denominations.

The population of Ottawa, as given in the census of 1901, is divided into religious denominations as follows:

Roman Catholics, 31,309; Anglicans, 10,017; Presbyterians, 3,024; Methodists, 5,788; Baptists, 1,673; Menonites, 6; Greek church, 8; Lutherans, 1,088; Congregationalists, 427; Brethren, 219; Disciples, 3; Adventists, 6; Jews, 398; Salvation Army, 69; Friends, 4; Pagans, 1; Protestants, 150; various sects, 594; unspecified, 144; total, 59,928.

The census of 1891 gives the religious denominations of a population of only 33,942, while the total population of the municipality was 44,154, so that exact comparisons to determine the increase in each denomination cannot be made. The indications are, however, that Catholic and non-Catholic denominations have increased in about the same ratio. The number of Jews in Ottawa in 1891 was 46; the last census shows 398.

The origins of the population of Ottawa are: English, 12,231; Irish, 17,911; Scotch, 7,137; French, 19,495; German, 1,729; Italian, 306.

There are 10,314 houses in Ottawa and 11,210 families. The population consists of 28,548 males and 31,380 females. The single males number 17,709, single females 19,317. The married males in the city are given as 10,060; married females 9,871. There are 756 widowers and 2,182 widows; and 15 divorced persons, of whom ten are females.

The area of Ottawa is 3,365 acres.

INTRODUCTION

We herewith present to our patrons the twenty-eighth volume of the Ottawa City Directory.

It is customary for the publishers of city Directories to give an estimate of the population of the city based on the number of individual names contained in the book.

The Government have this year taken the census of the Dominion, and although the population of Ottawa has not been made public at the time of our going to press we have no doubt it will come very close to our estimate. Our Ottawa Directory for 1891 contained 15,126 individual names and the Government census that year gave Ottawa a population of 44,154.

The present volume contains 24,093 individual names, exclusive of the names of firms, corporations, etc., an increase of 1,243 names in the year, being the largest increase in any one year since 1893.

Allowing the same ratio of names to population as we had in 1891 we estimate the present population of Ottawa to be 70,271.

We tender our sincere thanks to those, who by their patronage and support have materially aided and encouraged us in our work.

“ALGONQUIN NATIONAL PARK”

A great game preserve, a fishing paradise, a natural sanitarium, containing alone over 115,000 acres of water, which means hundreds of lakes, ponds, rivers and streams; it is one of the finest canoeing and camping regions in Canada, and has already over one hundred miles of trails and portages.

The most direct route from the east and south to the Muskoka District, Georgian Bay, and all points on the great lakes.

TOURISTS, BUSINESS MEN, LEGISLATORS

FIND THAT

THE RUSSELL is not only the largest and best appointed Hostelry west of Canada's metropolis, but that its location makes it particularly convenient for the transaction of departmental or other business, as a base for excursions into the picturesque country surrounding Ottawa. Hotel Victoria, 10 miles from Ottawa, reached by electric cars.

FOR A SUMMER SOJOURN its situation is admirable, while a private entrance to Ottawa's newest and finest theatre adds in their feature to its attractiveness as a COSY WINTER HOME.

Don't Lend Your DIRECTORY!

The patrons of our Directory are frequently inconvenienced by

BORROWERS;

not the stranger or private citizen, who steps in, looks at the Directory, gets his information, and goes out; but by business men, who continually need it for reference, yet are TOO MEAN to buy one. These are the men who carry off your Directory "just for a few minutes," which generally means a few days or weeks unless you send for it before.

These same borrowers tell our Canvassers that they have no use for a Directory.
